MOLLOY UNIVERSITY is dedicated to transformative education that promotes a search for truth and development of ethical leadership.

THE CONVERSATION

is committed to networking, education and leadership development to support social responsibility that builds stronger communities and businesses.

Molloy is proud to present the Patricia A. Calcado Graduate Business Scholarship in memory of an outstanding alumna and colleague who supported the ability of women and this annual program.

Join us for a dynamic symposium and networking event to explore women in philanthropy through the lens of shifting demographic trends, innovative engagement strategies, and the rising influence of women in giving. Whether you're a corporate or nonprofit leader, fundraiser, board member, or active in the community, this symposium offers valuable insights to help you navigate change, deepen connections, and drive meaningful impact.
