MOLLOY
UNIVERSITY

Join us for an extraordinary evening celebrating the power of the arts and education at Carnegie Hall, as Molloy University, home of the CAP21 musical theatre program, proudly presents Seth Rudetsky & His Broadway Friends

This one-night-only fundraising concert offers guests a behind-the-scenes look at Broadway through the wit, charm, and musical brilliance of Seth Rudetsky, SiriusXM host of On Broadway, and an impressive lineup of Broadway stars, including Santino Fontana, Norm Lewis, Andrea Martin, Jesse Mueller, Will Swenson, and more. All proceeds from the evening will benefit student scholarships, performing arts programming, and the continued advancement of Molloy’s nationally recognized partnership with the theatre community. You are invited to become a lead sponsor and patron of this landmark event, showcasing your commitment to education, the arts, and community impact. Opportunities for giving and recognition are listed below.

Your Support Makes Arts Education Possible
This concert is more than a performance—it’s a celebration of Molloy’s commitment to student excellence, creative expression, and the transformative power of education. By supporting Molloy University Presents: Seth Rudetsky & His Broadway Friends at Carnegie Hall, you are opening doors for the next generation of leaders, artists, educators, and innovators.
